Dad's Favorite Words of Wisdom

- Your gut is usually right. Listen quietly to your intuition and you'll see that you already know everything you need to know.
- A great handshake and an honest smile are free.
- Most of the time, people are doing the best that they can. Try to believe it.
- Don't wait for someone else to hold you accountable. Do it yourself.
- Respect others' beliefs, but don't back off on your own.
- Treat yourself well. Other people will, too.
- If you follow your passion, you'll never "work" a day in your life.
- Make empathy the default response.
- Strive to keep your promises.

Happy Father's Day!

Hello, Summer!

The summer solstice officially occurs on June 20. There are a number of ways to welcome summer into your home, as well as acclimate to the warm weather. What do you have in store to welcome the new season? Below are a few suggestions.

- Choose some summer buds to bask in the brightness of your home. Summer is home to many beautiful, colorful blooms, including peonies, marigolds, chrysanthemums and sunflowers.
- Change the layout of your furniture to better utilize the sunlight.
- Make a list and plan some new and exciting summer salads you're up for trying this summer.
- Open the main windows/doors of your home and let the warm air circulate in the morning. This can be quite refreshing and therapeutic.
- Plant a small raised bed garden, if space permits. If not, there's always room for an herb garden in your kitchen. There's nothing like fresh veggies, fruits and herbs in the summer.

Memories at TPC Parkway

Mother's Day Luncheon

On the Golf Course

An elderly golfer showed up at the course one morning without a partner. The pro agreed to play 18 holes with him and asked him what kind of a player he was.

“Not too bad, I guess,” the old duffer answered. “But I have a little trouble getting out of sand traps.”

They played a close game, and the older gentleman managed to avoid sand traps until they reached the 18th hole. His shot to the green dropped into the trap, and he'd have to sink his ball into the hole with just one shot to win the game.

The pro watched as the elderly golfer carefully stepped into the trap, looked the situation over, and swung his club. To the pro's amazement, the ball went right into the cup.

“Great shot!” the pro said. “I thought you said you have trouble getting out of sand traps?”

“I do. Could you give me a hand, please?”

Fighting for a Cause

Susan B. Anthony, civil rights activist and leader in the women's suffrage movement, inspired a countless number of people to fight for equality. She held her own ground, taking firm positions on numerous occasions, especially when it came to women's rights. June 6, 1872, was one of those occasions. She and a group of women in Rochester, New York, decided to vote in a presidential election. This attempt at equal voting rights for men and women was not only frowned upon, but also worthy of an arrest in the eyes of the government. Anthony stood her ground and underwent a trial for this matter. As a result of her arrest, she was fined $100, a penalty that went unpaid for the duration of Anthony's life. Anthony's ongoing efforts in the women's suffrage movement and unwavering dedication to civil rights were instrumental in the creation and passing of the 19th Amendment, giving every citizen, male or female, the right to vote.
