Independence Day

Independence Day, or the Fourth of July, celebrates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence by the 13 colonies in 1776, thereby severing their ties to Great Britain.

That historic document was drafted by Thomas Jefferson, with substantial edits made by other members of the Congress. An officially inscribed version was signed by 56 members of the Continental Congress on August 2.

Celebration of the day began during the American Revolution with fireworks and parades, traditions that continue today. The best-known observance takes place in Washington, D.C., and includes a spectacular fireworks display.

Did you know?

- A salute of one gun for each state in the United States, called a "salute to the union," is fired on Independence Day at noon by any capable military base.
- The first week of July is one of the busiest American travel periods of the year, as many people utilize the holiday for longer vacation trips.

Support us in a Walk to End Alzheimer's

We will be holding our 2nd annual Alamo Draffhouse to benefit Walk to end Alzheimer's Event on Tuesday, August 2, 2017. Movie will be located at the Alamo Draffhouse-Stone Oak. Mix and mingle will begin at 3:30 with show time at 4 pm. We will be showing the original Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory, featuring Gene Wilder. Tickets are $10 per person and will go towards the Alzheimer's association. For tickets contact Cynthia at cmorris@fpliving.com or call at 210-479-0155.

Gene Wilder began his movie career in 1967's Bonnie and Clyde, but he became famous as a favorite of writer/director Mel Brooks. His wacky roles in films such as Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory, Blazing Saddles and Young Frankenstein made him an unforgettable comedy icon. In his later years, Wilder became a serious novelist, writing a memoir and several novels. He was married to fellow actor/comedian Gilda Radner, until her death in 1989. Gene Wilder died from complications of Alzheimer's disease on August 28, 2016 at the age of 83. He kept his battle a secret because he did not want to upset his fans and 'couldn't bear the thought of one less smile in the world'.
